

LEWIS E. RUTLEDGE

CURRICULUM VITA

(November 7, 2015)

ADDRESSES

WORK: Department of Communication and Theatre
Point Loma Nazarene University
3900 Lomaland Drive
San Diego, CA 92106
(619) 849-2391

E-MAIL: skiprutledge@pointloma.edu

EDUCATION

Doctorate of Philosophy Communication, Rhetorical emphasis
2006 Regent University, Virginia Beach, VA

Master of Arts Speech Communication, 1996
San Diego State University

Teaching Credential Secondary Education, Single Subject Credential:
English, Point Loma Nazarene University, 1989

Bachelor of Arts Dual Degree: Literature and Philosophy, 1981
Claremont McKenna College

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Chair Department of Communication & Theatre, Point Loma Nazarene University, San Diego, CA Spring, 2015 to present

- Tenured, Full Professor, August 2006 – Present. PLNU
Advanced Argumentation & Debate Introduction to Public Speaking
Advanced Public Speaking Nonverbal Communication
Argumentation & Debate Oral Interpretation
Rhetorical Theories and Models Gender Communication
Media Literacy The British Experience (in London)

- Associate Professor, PLNU, August 2001 – August 2006.
- Assistant Professor, PLNU, September 1996 – July, 2001
- Instructor, PLNU, September 1989 -August 1996
- Debate Coach PLNU, September 1988-August 1989

Instructor, September 1995 To May 1996, Department of Communication, Vanguard University, Costa Mesa, CA (fka Southern California College)

PUBLICATIONS

Dissertation, Lewis E. (Skip) Rutledge, "Highly successful coaches in intercollegiate forensics: Seeking methods to the madness." 2006.

Rutledge, Skip & Forward, G. L. (Summer, 2004) "Presumption and Defending the Status Quo in Intercollegiate Debate: An Exploratory Survey of Judge Perceptions in Parliamentary & CEDA/NDT Debate Formats." Parliamentary Debate: The Journal of the National Parliamentary Debate Association, X. NPDA (pp. 24-48)

Rutledge, Skip, (2004) "Value Hierarchies: A summary of value conflicts." (Book chapter in) Argumentation and Debate: Taking the Next Step. (ed. Deborah Bush Haffey, Jeffrey B. Motter, & Christy L. Shipe. HSLDA: Purcellville, VA (pp.239-256)

Rutledge, Skip, (2004) "All I really needed to learn about debate I learned in Kindergarten: A coach's guide to encouraging novice debaters." (Book chapter in) Teachers' and coaches' guide to argumentation and debate: Taking the next step. (ed. Deborah Bush Haffey, Jeffrey B. Motter, & Christy L. Shipe. HSLDA: Purcellville, VA (pp.31-42)

Rutledge, Skip, (Summer, 2002). Ethics in Action in NPDA Debate: A Philosophical and Pragmatic Analysis of Macroscopic and Microscopic Elements of Lying Parliamentary Debate. Parliamentary Debate: The Journal of the National Parliamentary Debate Association, VII. NPDA. (pp 1-23).

Rutledge, Skip, (Summer, 2000). Government's Defense of the Status Quo: Advocating a Shift in Applying Presumption Theory In Intercollegiate Parliamentary Debate. Parliamentary Debate: The Journal of the National Parliamentary Debate Association, V. NPDA. (pp 24-45).

Rutledge, Skip, (Summer, 2000). "Points of Information from the President's Podium." Parliamentary Debate: The Journal of the National Parliamentary Debate Association, V. NPDA.;

Rutledge, Skip., (Summer, 1999). "Notes from the president: Where are we headed?" Parliamentary Debate: The Journal of the National Parliamentary Debate Association, IV, (26-30). NPDA.

Rutledge, L. E., (1997, August). Forensics fellows: Integrating faculty participation into intercollegiate parliamentary debate programs. In S. Whitney (Ed.), Third National Development Conference on Individual Events. Houston: Rice University

Rutledge, L. E., (1996, March). A coach's guide to encouraging novice debaters: Or, everything I needed to learn about debate I learned in kindergarten. In G. J. Treadway (Ed.) The Cross Examination Debate Association's development guide. (pp.286-297). Cross Examination Debate Association.

Rutledge, S. (1985, August/September). Notes from a very special journal: Found and translated by Skip Rutledge. The Wittenburg Door, 86, 30.

CONFERENCE PAPERS & ACTIVITIES

“Debating Across the Curriculum”, Pacific Southwest Collegiate Forensics Association Coaches Conference, Rancho Mirage, CA, September, 2015

“Five Basic Fundamentals of Intercollegiate Debate”, Pacific Southwest Collegiate Forensics Association Novice Seminar and Event Demonstration, Grossmont College, La Mesa, CA September, 2013. Novice Speech Seminar. (and September 2014, and September 2015 along with “Oral Interpretation Overview and Tips for Success)

“Hosting and Directing Forensics Tournaments: An Annotated Template and Check List”, Pacific Southwest Collegiate Forensics Association Coaches Conference, Rancho Mirage, CA, September 6-8, 2013

“Five Basic Fundamentals of Intercollegiate Debate”, Pacific Southwest Collegiate Forensics Association Novice Seminar and Event Demonstration, Grossmont College, La Mesa, CA September 15 2012.

“Practical Coaching Recommendations: 12 Practical Tips Towards More Successful Forensics Coaching Dr. Skip Rutledge, Point Loma Nazarene University PSCFA Coaches Conference, Palm Rancho Mirage, CA September 7, 2008”

“If You Can Dodge a Wrench, You Can Dodge a Ball; A Discussion of Teaching and Coaching Techniques and Drills for Speech and Debate” Skip Rutledge, Ph. D., Point Loma Nazarene University PSCFA Coaches Conference, Las Palmas CA, Sept 5, 2008

“How to host and direct a forensics tournament.” Presentation at Pacific Southwest Collegiate Forensics Association Coaches Conference, San Diego, 2005

“The Matrix redeemed: Looking to the elements of redemption and salvation throughout the Gospel of “The Matrix.” To be presented at National Communication Conference, November 2003, Chicago.

“Cosmic Christ: A "Neo" Representation of Cheap Grace via the Postmodern Messianic Redeemer in The Matrix.” Presented at National Communication Conference, November 2003, Miami.

“Back to the Basics of Judging Paradigm Construction, or I’m a Debate Judge, Jim, Not a Policy Maker.” Presented at National Communication Conference, November 2003, Miami.

Chair panel on “ The Religious Rhetorical President.” at National Communication Conference, November, 2003, Miami.

“Ethics in Action in NPDA Debate: A Philosophical and Pragmatic Analysis of Macroscopic and Microscopic Elements of Lying Parliamentary Debate.” Presented at the National Communication Association Conference, November, 2002, New Orleans.

“Value Debate: An Exploration”, with D. Graham. Presented at National Christian Forensics and Communications Association Conference, June 2002, Murfreesboro, TN.

“Ethics in Action in NPDA Debate: A Philosophical and Pragmatic Analysis of Macroscopic and Microscopic Elements of Lying in Parliamentary Debate.” Presented at NPDA National Championship Pre-Tournament Conference. March, 2002, Denver, CO

“Can we restore a sense of community in academic debate? The legacy of the Tahoe conference.” presented at National Communication Association Convention, November, 2001, Atlanta.

“Presumption and defending the status quo in intercollegiate debate: A statistical analysis of judge perceptions in parliamentary and CEDA/NDT debate formats.” Coauthored with Forward, G. L. Presented at the Tahoe Conference on Academic Debate, Lake Tahoe, NV. (2001, June).

“Rumors, Reality and NPDA Debate.” Presented at the Tahoe Conference on Academic Debate, Lake Tahoe, NV. (2001, June).

"Presumption shift: Arguments for accepting the government's defense of the Status Quo." presented at National Communication Association Convention, November, 2000, Seattle.

“Panacea or Pandora’s Box: An analysis of the promises and pitfalls in cyberspace for the church in the twenty-first century”, presented at National Communication Association Convention, November, 1999, Chicago.

Presided over NPDA National Business Meeting, National Communication Association Convention. November, 1999, Chicago, and Seattle, 2000.

“Is Michael Warnke a worthy evangelist, or the antithesis of a good man speaking well?” presented at National Communication Association Convention, November, 1998, New York.

“Utilizing traditional value debate concepts in parliamentary debate.”, presented at National Communication Association Convention, November, 1997, Chicago.

“Forensics Fellows: Integrating faculty participation into intercollegiate parliamentary debate programs.” Third National Development Conference on Individual Events. August, 1997, Houston.

Chaired panel “ Media utilization to explore and advance religious messages “, Speech Communication Association Convention, November 1996, San Diego.

“ Dehumanization and rehumanization of Jews in Spielberg’s Schindler’s List: Rhetorical functions of infestation and color metaphors.” Co-authored with Leslie Dilbeck, presented at SCA National Convention, November 1995, San Antonio.

“All I really needed to learn about debate I learned in kindergarten: A coaches guide To encouraging novice debaters.” , presented at Speech Communication Association Convention, November 1994, New Orleans.

Chaired panel: “Religious perspectives in media criticism”, Speech Communication Association Convention, November 1993, Miami Beach.

Panelist: “University recruitment and assimilation of two year college forensic students”, Speech Communication Convention, November 1993, Miami Beach.

“A Burkian view of hierarchy and identification in popular film images of Heaven and Hell”, presented at Speech Communication Convention, October 1992, Chicago.

Chaired panel: “Reaching out from beyond the grave: Critical analysis of the death experience in popular American film”, Speech Communication Association Convention, October 1991, Atlanta.

Have also attended the previous Faith Living and Learning conferences hosted at Mount Vernon Nazarene University, Mt Vernon, Ohio, and Southern Nazarene University, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

OTHER INVITED PRESENTATIONS

Guest Lecturer and Host for Training Minds Ministry Speech and Debate Summer Institute, Point Loma Nazarene University, Summer 2013. Delivered various lectures to students, and others to coaches throughout the week, and hosted event.

Miriam Maddox Lecturer for series of lectures at Cedarville University, March, 2004. Delivered lecture on The Matrix and faith in one session, and lectured on debate issues in the other session.

“Incorporating and encouraging faculty support for college forensics programs.” Presented at Pacific Southwest Collegiate Forensics Association Coaches Conference, September, 2001, Palm Desert, CA

“The changing state of debate: A case for parliamentary debate.”, presented at Pacific Southwest Collegiate Forensics Association Coaches Conference, September, 1998, Del Mar, CA.

“Gender issues in communication and language.” Guest Lecture for Master of Ministry Class, Graduate Religion Department, Point Loma Nazarene University, September, 1998. San Diego, CA.

ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

Director of Forensics, 1990 to present, Point Loma Nazarene University

Forensics Responsibilities:

- Responsible for recruiting, training, and coaching staff & students
- Responsible for administrative duties and travel arrangements
- Responsible for judging at tournaments, and or helping administer events.
- Manage and maintain over $150,000 combined in team operating and scholarship budgets annually.
- Direct major annual national speech and debate tournaments (Sunset Cliffs Classic), which attracts 60 +/- colleges,
- Host premier NPDA debate Round Robin Tournament of Champions annually
- Host various high school tournaments high school/ home school tournaments.
- Directed NPDA National Championship Tournaments in 2000 and 2001
- Formed and directed large alumni support charter for speech and debate that has raised over $ 100,000 in contributions for forensics program, before and after the economic crash.
- Hosted major year-end National Championship Tournaments for different national forensics leagues including
 - NPDA (National Parliamentary Debate Association) 1999
 - NCFCA (Christian Home School Forensics) 2000, 2004,
 - Stoa (Christian Home School Forensics) 2011,2014
 - NCCFI (Christian colleges and universities forensics organization) 2003, 2016

Forensics Coaching Highlights

- PLNU Parliamentary Debate teams have been ranked in First Place nationally over a cumulative span of time leading back to 1997, for the NPDA yearlong sweepstakes race when measured over the entire span of time the organization has kept records.
- Directed debaters to win back to back Senior Division of Parliamentary Debate at NCCFI Nationals, and multiple other national championships Senior Division Lincoln Douglas Debate, and individual events.
- 2008-2009 NPDA top ranked yearlong sweeps champion
- 2006-2007 NPDA National Championship Team of Vertican and Kamermeier – undefeated.
- 2006-2007 NPDA top ranked team in yearlong sweepstakes champion

- 2003 and 2004 NPDA Year Long Sweeps – National Champions, and NCCFI Debate National Champions both years,
- 2004 team won Second in NPDA Tournament Sweepstakes
- Coached Top Speaker (Katie Angliss) at NPDA Champs 2001.
- First Place (2001) National Christian College Forensics Invitational National Championship.
- First Place NPDA (1999) National Championship Tournament Sweepstakes, Third place honors in 2000 where we advanced 4 teams to elimination rounds, dropping last two in octafinals.
 - Coached team to hundreds of First, Second, or Third Place School Sweepstakes awards at major debate and individual events tournaments throughout the nation since beginning as Pt Loma's coach in 1988.
- Coached 1997-98 DSR-TKA National Debate Co-Champion David Graham
- Fourth Place Sweepstakes Award at the 1995 DSR-TKA Nationals held at Cornell - CEDA debate
- 1993/94 debate squad ranked Seventh in the Nation - CEDA Debate
- 1994/95 debate team ranked Sixteenth in the Nation - CEDA Debate
- Coached National Champion in Dramatic Interpretation at 1995 DSR-TKA Nationals, James Hazelwood
- Coached multiple debaters that have been named to the CEDA All American Debate Team or Academic All American Debate Team, NPDA All American Team, and PSCFA All Academic teams.
- Coached teams to winning records at all CEDA and NPDA National Tournament attended since 1990.
- Coached and Directed teams to two Top Ten Individual Events National Sweepstakes Awards, 1994 NFA Division III; 1996 NFA Division III, and various other AFA NIET trophy winners.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

- President, National Christian College Forensics Association (NCCFA) 2009 - 2012
- Host summer debate camps for Christian Home School competitors in Debate, and Individual events since Summer 2013
- Hosted National Championship Tournament for Stoa Christian Home School League, summer 2011.
- Hosted NCFCA National Championship, 2005
- Hosted PSCFA Coaches Conference, September 2005
- Chair, Media Forum Division, Religious Communication Association 2002-05
- Regional Director for National Christian College Forensics Association 2003-05, and host of NCCFI National Tournament 2003
- At Large Director on Board of Directors for the National Christian Forensics & Communication Association, July 2000 to 2009. (home school forensics)
- Journal Referee for Christian Scholars Review, 2002. for Dr. Rick Kennedy.
- Associate Editor, review board for The Journal of Public Advocacy.
- Hosted NPDA National Championship Tournament March, 1999.

- President, National Parliamentary Debate Association, March 1999 – 2001
- Western States regional representative to National Executive Council of the National Parliamentary Debate Association (NPDA), March 1997 to 2008.
- Instructor for National Parliamentary Debate Summer Workshop, July 1997 to 2006, Willamette University, Salem OR
- President, Pacific Southwest Collegiate Forensics Association (PSCFA) 1996-97 Responsible for planning /coordinating a 3 day coaching conference, and overseeing the activities of the organization including the demonstration and 4 tournaments a year
- Vice President, Pacific Southwest Collegiate Forensics Association 1995-96
- Chair, Media Forum Division, Religious Speech Communication Association 1995-97
- Vice Chair, Media Forum Division, Religious Speech Communication Association 1993-94
- Served on Editorial Review Board for Jabusch, D. M., & Littlejohn, S. W., (1995) Elements of Speech Communication (3rd ed.).San Diego: Collegiate Press

HONORS AND AWARDS

- 2006 - D. L Miller Award for perpetual excellence for PLNU Forensics Team, given by Pacific Southwest Collegiate Forensics Association
- 2002 - Travis G. Jones, Outstanding Coach Award, presented at NCCFI Christian College Nationals
- 2001 - Award of Appreciation for Presiding over NPDA, presented at NPDA National Championship Tournament at Metro State, Denver.
- 2000 - Award of Appreciation for Hosting HSLDA National Speech and Debate Tournament, Home School Legal Defense Association.
- 1997 - Awarded Suzanne Larson Award for forensics coaching distinction from Southern Utah University.
- 1996-97 - Jack Howe Forensics Award Recipient. Presented by PSCFA forensics league for years of service and leadership to forensics community.
- 1994 - Won Top Coach Award at Towson's 1994 Chesapeake Classic Tournament.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

- Choir member at Mission Church of the Nazarene, after several years at First Church of the Nazarene, San Diego, also acted in Christmas play in a lead role.
- Served in Life Group home ministry leadership board for Mission Church of the Nazarene.
- Have actively served in a reading ministry to second and third graders through the Mission Church of the Nazarene in the San Diego Unified School District.
- Have been actively involved as actor, playwright and director of church drama groups at Mission Valley Church of the Nazarene (San Diego, CA), Skyline Wesleyan Church (Lemon Grove, CA) and Camarillo Christian Church (Camarillo, CA)

- Church Leadership at Skyline Wesleyan (1985 - 88), serving as President and Staff Intern for a college career group of 600 people (the church had 3000 +/-) under Pastors John Maxwell and Tim Elmore.
- Host many major tournaments for Christian home school forensics league and served on their National Board of Directors - NCFCA

ORGANIZATIONS

National Communication Association
Religious Communication Association
Pacific Southwest Collegiate Forensics Association
American Forensics Association
National Forensics Association
National Parliamentary Debate Association
National Christian Forensics & Communication Association
National Christian Colleges Forensics Association

PREVIOUS WORK EXPERIENCE - NON ACADEMIC EMPHASIS

1985 - 1988: PRINCIPAL PROPERTY MANAGER, San Diego Unified Port District. Negotiated and maintained hundreds of leases for industrial, commercial and recreational properties owned by the Port District. For example, managed all property leases at San Diego International Airport (airlines, car rental agencies, advertisement kiosks, food service vendors, etc. . . .)

1981 - 1984: PROPERTY MANAGER, LEASE NEGOTIATOR, County of Ventura, Public Works Agency. Managed, acquired, and/or leased property for various governmental functions throughout Ventura County.

REFERENCES

Todd Lewis, Ph.D.
Chair, Department of Communication
Biola University
13800 Biola Avenue
La Mirada, CA 90639
(310) 903-6000

Thomas Carmody
Chair, Communication Department
Southern California College
Costa Mesa, CA 92626
(714) 556-3610

Marc Newman
Department of Speech
Palomar College
San Marcos, CA 92069
(619) 744-1105 x 2794

Brian Spitzberg, Ph. D.
Department of Communication
San Diego State University
San Diego, CA 92182
(619) 594-7097