

Mission Statement

Department of Sociology

To prepare students to apply a professional foundation, critical thinking, and a Christian perspective as they engage the evolving social world.