

2. Recall, identify, and use fundamental concepts of literary study to read and discuss texts:
 - a. Standard literary terminology
 - b. Modes/genres of literature
 - c. Elements of literary genres
 - d. Literary periods (dates, writers, characteristics, and important developments)
 - e. Extra-literary research
3. Connect the works with their own lives and with the social, cultural, and historical contexts of the works and their authors.

REQUIRED TEXTS

The Best American Essays 2017, Edited by Leslie Jamison and Robert Atwan
ISBN-13: 978-0544817333

Additional readings will be posted to Canvas—you will need to print these out and bring them with you to class the day they are assigned so that you can access the documents in class during discussion. If you print double-sided, and more than one .pdf page per printed page, this will lower the printing cost for you this semester. I would recommend getting a 3-ring binder to organize the essays posted to Canvas.

Please bring a notebook and writing utensil to each class to take notes, as well as the textbook/assigned essays that will be discussed for that class period.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Reading/Reading Quizzes:

Dates for the readings are clearly indicated on the schedule. Complete all reading prior to the class session when the text will be discussed. You will be expected to read and annotate (take notes in the margins) all assigned course readings. Reading quizzes will total 200 points, but there is no set number of quizzes planned: rather, the quiz grades will be totaled across the semester and then the percentage will be taken out of 200. Example: Fifteen ten-point reading quizzes in a semester (150 points) and you get 80% total on them. You would then score an 80% on them out of 200: 160/200.

Discussion:

The success of the course will be directly related to the quality of daily discussions. Each of you must feel comfortable contributing to discussions. And each of you should bring any questions you have about the reading to our attention during the course of our discussions.

Writing:

Each student will complete a mid-term exam and a final exam in class, a Writer's Symposium Reflection, and a reflection essay written outside of class. Students cannot pass the course without completing each of these major assignments. See TURNING IN ASSIGNMENTS for info on late work.

Group Presentation:

In groups of four to five, students will present on an essay outside of what we've read as a class, and present the work to the class. Each presentation will be 8-10 minutes in length. A group grade will be given for the presentation. Each student will turn in a detailed breakdown of how each group member contributed to the presentation.

Attendance:

Regular and punctual attendance at all classes is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent from more than 10 percent of class meetings [for this course, that's more than 2 class periods], the faculty member can file a written report which may result in de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent [for this course, that's 4 class periods], the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive the appropriate grade for their work and participation. See Academic Policies in the Undergraduate Academic Catalog.

MIDTERM AND FINAL EXAMINATION POLICY

Successful completion of this class requires taking the midterm and final examinations on their scheduled days. The final examination schedule is posted on the Class Schedules site. No requests for early examinations or alternative days will be approved.

METHODS OF INSTRUCTION

This class is interactive and discussion-based. So you'll need to come to class prepared to talk and write about the literary texts we're reading and contribute to and lead discussions, small groups, and peer reviews. You will not understand what is happening during our classes if you haven't done the reading and you will miss out on valuable perspective and insights from your classmates if you do not attend class. Students who attend regularly, stay engaged in the class activities, and keep up with all of the assigned reading and writing usually succeed in this course.

GENERAL COURSE POLICIES

CANVAS

Throughout this course, students will be required to utilize Canvas to post homework responses, receive course grades, and access any changes to the Course Schedule throughout the semester. If the Course Schedule is updated, students will be notified well in advance, but will need to download the updated schedule which the instructor will post on Canvas.

CANVAS SUPPORT

If you have questions about the content you find in my Canvas course or need clarification on assignment instructions please let me know. If you are unsure how to use any given feature in Canvas you will find the Canvas Guides to be a very helpful resource. If you cannot access something in my Canvas course or it appears that some part of the course is not working properly, please contact the Office of Instructional Technology for support at oit@pointloma.edu. Include specific information in the request (course ID, section, assignment or module name, etc.) to expedite the troubleshooting process. Screenshots are super helpful!

PLNU EMAIL

Students must regularly check their PLNU email account for updates on assignments and scheduling.

RESPECT

Practice basic respect and consideration toward your peers and professor. There will likely be some tricky moments in this class because the literature we read may bring up some conversations about sensitive issues, topics, and language. Remember that we are interested in inquiry, especially critical inquiry, not in offending or battering other people into compliance. Please do not sleep, carry on private conversations, text, or work on assignments for other classes. Students who do so are not actively present in class and will lose participation points.

TECHNOLOGY

Refrain from using cell phones, laptops, iPads, and other electronic devices during class time unless a classroom activity calls for it to be used. More often than not, these create a distraction, rather than being useful. Taking notes by hand has been shown to aid long-term comprehension much more than typing notes, so please take handwritten notes throughout this class. Use of technology during class will result in lost participation points.

TURNING IN ASSIGNMENTS

All assignments must be turned in on Canvas before the class period on the day they are due.

Late essay assignments are those turned in any time after class on the due date. Late essays will lose a letter grade for each calendar day they are late (so an A becomes a B after one calendar day, and so on). Late essays will not be accepted after a week from the due date. It is your responsibility to ensure that your essay is uploaded to Canvas on the day it is due. Missed in-class work and quizzes cannot be made up.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty should follow and students may appeal using the procedure in the university Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

PLNU COPYRIGHT POLICY

Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.

PLNU ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY

If you have a diagnosed disability, please contact PLNU's Disability Resource Center (DRC) to demonstrate need and to register for accommodation by phone at 619-849-2486 or by e-mail at DRC@pointloma.edu. See Disability Resource Center for additional information.

PERSONAL NEEDS

Counseling is available in the Wellness Center for undergraduate students at PLNU. They are open Monday through Friday during the academic school year to offer morning, afternoon, and evening appointments. Please call (619) 849-2574 to schedule a counseling appointment.

WRITER'S SYMPOSIUM

Each spring PLNU hosts the Writers Symposium By the Sea which brings premiere writers to campus. This semester, we will be reading essays by Pico Iyer and Alice Walker in class, so you will be required to attend the following two evening events for this class (each ticket costs $5 at the student rate):

—($5) Writer's Symposium: Wed. Feb. 26, Pico Iyer @ 7PM, Crill Performance Hall

—($5) Writer's Symposium: Thurs. Feb. 27, Alice Walker @ 7PM, Brown Chapel

Order WRITER'S SYMPOSIUM TICKETS ASAP in case the events sell out. If you don't get tickets and the event sells out, you'll lose points on this assignment. Think of the tickets as a textbook expense.

<https://www.pointloma.edu/events/25th-annual-writers-symposium-sea>

If you cannot attend one/both of the above required events due to work or class, contact Prof. Maakestad with an excused absence from a professor/boss, and attend one/two of the following so that you attend two Writer's Symposium events total:

—($32) Writer's Symposium: Tues. Jan. 31, Isabel Allende @ 7PM, Brown Chapel

—(Free) Writer's Symposium: Tues. Feb. 25, Sonia Nozario @ 3PM, Fermanian Conference Center

—Writer's Symposium: Tues. Feb. 25, Sonia Nozario @ 7PM, Crill Performance Hall

—(Free) Writer's Symposium: Wed. Feb. 26, Pico Iyer @ 3-4:30PM, Fermanian Conference Center

Upload a one full page reflection about the two events that you attended; in addition, attach a selfie of yourself at each event at the end of the document. Attending these two events and uploading this reflection is worth 50 points.

Writer's Symposium Extra Credit: On top of attending the required two Writer's Symposium events, you can attend up to two additional aforementioned unrequired Symposium events to earn up to 20 extra credit points. Each event will be worth 10 points Extra Credit within the Reading Quiz category and will be applied to points missed on reading quizzes at the end of the semester. To Canvas, upload a selfie of yourself and a brief paragraph of something that stood out to you or impressed you from each session that you attended to get full extra credit.

PARTICIPATION

Coming to class well-prepared is critical in a discussion-based course like this one. I expect you to come to each class prepared—that means not just doing the reading, thinking about it, and digesting it, but also bringing your book/assigned essays to class because we will often reference the text during class. Coming to class without the assigned reading for the day will result in a loss of participation points. You should also be prepared to actively engage in class discussions and other in-class activities. I expect you each to meaningfully engage with the coursework and with one another.

Class participation will be graded out of 100. Each class day is worth 2 points, up to a max of 38 points (20 non-exam MWF meetings). You can miss two classes without it affecting your grade (any points above 38 will be counted as extra credit)—but you are still responsible for the readings/homework due on the days you're absent. If you miss class or are significantly unprepared for class, you'll earn a zero for that day. Each absence above three will result in 5 points being subtracted from the participation category.

For the remaining 62 points of your participation grade, you'll earn a 50 if you're doing the basics of engaging with the class and participating in discussion; you'll earn a 50+ if I see you regularly leaping in and making strong contributions; you'll earn a 49 or lower if you are frequently late, unprepared, inattentive, disruptive, or do not regularly participate in discussion.

I expect you to attend class and to arrive on time—but I also understand that things come up. In the case of an emergency, please contact me as soon as possible to discuss what arrangements can be made.
